

Love me Now

by Tish

G<sup>b</sup>Maj7/E<sup>b</sup>                      Fm7                      G<sup>b</sup>Maj7

A<sup>b</sup>                      G<sup>b</sup>Maj7                      Fm7

Here I am,                      and                      here you are,                      Now Say you'll stay                      right                      here with me,                      And lis - ten to                      your                      heart,                      And                      just                      what,                      what let your love                      set you                      free,                      You                      know                      that,                      that